Re: United States v. George J. Kundrat
Docket No. 3:05CR172 (JBA)
USAO No. 2004R00676

This letter is intended to advise you that on July 7, 2005, George J. Kundrat plead guilty to a one-count Information charging him with Conspiracy, in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. §371.

You have been identified as a crime victim. As a crime victim, you have the following rights under 18 United States Code § 3771: (1) The right to be reasonably protected from the accused; (2) The right to reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of any public court proceeding, or any parole proceeding, involving the crime or of any release or escape of the accused; (3) The right not to be excluded from any such public court proceeding, unless the court, after receiving clear and convincing evidence, determines that testimony by the victim would be materially altered if the victim heard other testimony at that proceeding; (4) The right to be reasonably heard at any public proceeding in the district court involving release, plea, sentencing, or any parole proceeding; (5) The reasonable right to confer with the attorney for the Government in the case; (6) The right to full and timely restitution as provided in law; (7) The right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay; (8) The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for the victim's dignity and privacy.

We will make our best efforts to ensure you are accorded the rights described. You can seek the advice of an attorney with respect to these rights.

The Honorable Janet Bond Arterton, United States District Judge, has tentatively scheduled Mr. Kundrat's sentencing for September 26, 2005 at 2:00 p.m., at the Federal Courthouse, 141 Church Street, New Haven, Connecticut. While your attendance is not required at the sentencing, you should know that you are most welcome to attend the sentencing if you choose to do so. Please contact the undersigned to confirm the sentencing date and time.

The United States Probation Office is currently conducting a presentence investigation and is writing a report to Judge Arterton who is interested in knowing how this crime may have affected you. If you wish to advise the court of how you were affected by the criminal conduct of Mr. Kundrat, please feel free to submit a statement before August 26, 2005 to Linda Corrado, Victim Witness Coordinator, United States Attorney's Office, P.O. Box 1824, New Haven, CT, 06508. Your statement will become a formal part of the court's records and will be seen by the defendant and his attorney.
